Program Notes

Inspired by popular 5v5 first-person tactical shooter video games such as VALORANT™, Counter Strike: Global Offensive™, and Rainbow Six®: Seige. Fake A, Rush B musically depicts an action packed, high-stakes game between attackers and defenders.

The title Fake A, Rush B comes from a communication between players in these types of games. For context, these games usually have 2-3 sites where one team must defend/attack. These sites are named alphabetically. When the leader of the attacking team says to "fake A", it means to decoy the defending team into thinking the attacking team will go to the "A Site" but instead the attacking team will go into or "rush" the B Site.

PERFORMANCE NOTES

This should be as cinematically intense as possible.
Every Forte-Piano and crescendo should be overexaggerated.
If there is only 1 Tuba, the bottom notes in the divisi sections should take precedence.

BIOGRAPHY

Salvador Alan Jacobo (b. June 6, 1997) has composed music for an array of musical settings from wind ensembles to brass ensembles to marching bands and everything in between.

His compositions have acquired attention from notable composers such as John Mackey. He accredits his mentors: Benjamin Fairfield, John Mackey, and Mark Dal Porto as being pivotal to his progressive success as a composer, conductor, and performer.

Salvador has also been the guest conductor for various public school bands such as the Portales Junior High Band, the Portales High School Band, and the 30th Biennial Eastern New Mexico University Alumni Band.

When leisure outweighs his typical obligations of composition, Salvador invests his time in mindless musical memes or playing Mortal Kombat. It is not uncommon to find him laughing hysterically at the most esoteric of memes that the internet, or he, can produce.

Salvador is also a brother of the Kappa Sigma Fraternity (Theta-Zeta Chapter).
